

Cloverdale Street Index
Street Name	Year	Notes	Source	Map Ref.
Alana Way	0	This is a sub-street of Garden Circle, a U-shaped street with sub-streets from one side to the other.	observation	E3
Albany Street	2000	This is in the Clover Springs development.	2007 map	E2
Albertz Street	2000	Named after Joseph Albertz (Ferdinand Hans Albertz?), who operated a winery nearby along Hot Springs Road. From 1930-31 he operated an airstrip just below his home. During Prohibition he operated the largest still in Sonoma County. His home was destroyed by fire in 1949. This is in the Clover Springs development.	Pacific Coast Air Museum reprint from Reveille	E2
Allen Avenue	1972	This is in the Tarman subdivision.	1972 Centennial map	D2
Alter Street	1953	This is in the Tarman subdivision.	1953 map	D2
Amaroli Road	1953		2007 map	I-4
Angeli Road	0		2007 map	D4
Antonio Street	1953		1953 map	C2
Asti Road	0	This is an early road linking Cloverdale and Italian Swiss Colony at Asti. During the first two decades of the 20th century, many Italian Swiss Colony workers lived in Cloverdale.		D3 to I-7
Aurelia Drive	0			C3
Bandiera Way	0			D2
Barbara Lane	0		2007 map	B4
Barcelona Way	0		2007 map	C1
Bates Street	1872	near Railroad depot, in the Doyle & Overton section. not on 2007 map; no longer exists.	Board of Trustees map at Recorder's office
Bella Aria Way	0		2007 map	G6
Berti Lane	0	This is outside the city limits between the Russian River and River Road.	not on 1972 city map because out of city limits	C3
Blair Street	1953	Does this name have any relationship to William and Mary Blair who owned the theater on First Street in 1950?	1953 map	D2
Block Drive	1972		1972 Centennial map	B2

Broad Street	1872	This was one of the first thirteen streets laid out by Joseph Kleiser and appearing on the 1872 map; it was built wide enough for a team of horses to turn a wagon. The house on the corner of Broad and Main was built in 1903 for the Menihan family. The Episcopal church across the street was built in 1886. In the 1980s, the street access to Cloverdale Blvd. was blocked off to form the current plaza.	Wilson, W. B. Cloverdale and Downtown Walking Tour	C2
Brook Court	0			E2
Brookside Drive	1972		1972 Centennial map	E2
Buck Road	0			B2 to E-3
Buckeye Circle	0			E1
Burgundy Court	0			D2
Butler Court				C2
Cabernet Street	2000	Vintage Meadows subdivision built by Sonoma Family Homes in 2001; this was formerly the border between a Seghesio and a Boehm vineyard..	not on 1998 map	D2
Caldwell Lane	1972	formerly Ivy Dell Lane; William Caldwell bought 165 acres around this spot, which had been part of Rancho Musalacon. The lane is not on 2007 map; see Caldwell Street.	1972 Centennial map	D2
Caldwell Street	1877	may have had 165 acres originally; by 1918 it was listed as 81 acres.	1877 atlas p. 88; 1918 Parsons map	D2
Caledonian Court	0		between 1998 and 2005	C2
Campbell Road	0		2007 map	G7
Cedar Lane	0		2007 map	F6
Chablis Way	0	before 1998		D2
Champlain Avenue	1911			C2
Chardonnay Court	0			D1
Charles Street	1946
Charles Street	1946			C2
Chelsea Circle	0			E1
Cherry Creek Road	0	very old, from the 19th century or earlier; out of city limits for a long time. An early name for this street was Skunk Creek Road.		D-1
Chianti Road	0	so far from the early city limits that it was not on Cloverdale maps	2007 map ; not shown on 1998 map	I-7

Chrome Iron Road	0	outside the city limits, so not shown on earlier city maps	2007 map	G-4
Church Lane	0		2007 map; not shown on 1998 map	E-3
Circle Drive	0		between 1998-2007 maps	D2
Citrus Fair Drive	1948	The Chamber of Commerce bought six acres from Mrs. E. Seghesio for the Citrus fairgrounds for $15,000 in 1948. The section at the fairgrounds is a private road. □ Citrus Fair Drive became more important when it became the freeway exit in the 1990s.	Marie Vadon Hill, Cloverdale Memories, p. 15	D2
Clark Avenue	1953	part of the Six Acres tract built by Coastal Plywood and Timber Co. in 1948; later □ called the Tarman Tract	Marie Vadon Hill, Cloverdale Memories	D2
Clover Springs Drive	1998	Del Webb's Clover Springs development was built in 1998-2000	1998 Chamber of Commerce map	E2
Clovercrest Drive	1978	1972 Centennial map written as one word: Clovercrest □ 1978 General Plan written as two words: Clover Crest □ 2007 map written as one word		B1
Cloverdale Boulevard	1859	Shown as West St. on the 1859 survey by J. B. Brown; named by Kleiser and Brush. □ Renamed Cloverdale Blvd. in 1968. □ □ The principal commercial street of Cloverdale	Wilson, W. B. Cloverdale: A History of the Area.	E2
Cloverdale City Road	0		2007	C3
Comazzi Lane (pvt)	0	home of the Comazzi family; formalized into an official street after the fire department had difficulty locating it when called for a heart attack	Mr. Comazzi, oral communication, 2007	E2
Commerce Lane	0		2007 map	E3
Commercial Street	1872	one of the earliest streets; 201 Commercial was the site of the first firehouse and □ city hall in the early 1900s. The Grange Hall occupied this site in 1935 and still □ maintains ownership in 2008.	Historic Cloverdale Downtown Walking Tour	C2
Cooley Lane	1877	Charles Henry Cooley owned 279 acres in Oat Valley in 1868. Marietta Cooley married □ William Sink, another prominent Oat Valley pioneer.	1877 atlas	B2
Cottage Court	2005	This is part of the Cottages subdivision along Foothill Boulevard.	2007 map	F2

Court Street	1872	perpendicular to Bates Street; no longer exists	1872 Board of Trustees map at Recorder's office
Creekside	0		2007 map	E-2
Crocker Road	0	the extension of First Street to the east towards River Road	1897	C3
Crook Road (pvt)	0		2007 map	B4
Dale	0	not on 2007 map
Debmar Avenue	1972		1972 Centennial map
Del Webb Drive	1998	named for the corporation that built the Clover Springs senior community	city records; 1998 CC map	E-2
Del Webb Street	0		2007 map	E-1
Dina Street	1953			D2
Donovan	0	not on 2007 map
Douglas Fir Drive	0	not on 2007 map
Duesler Road	0		2007 map	G-7
Dutcher Creek Road	0	Because it is relatively far south, it was not included on earlier Cloverdale maps	2007 map	G-4
East Street	1859	one of the earliest streets in town; at East & Broad Capt John Field, owner of Rockpile Ranch, ran a livery business; nearby Harry & Sally Hayward ran a stage line to Lake County from 1887-1911	1859 J B Wood survey, Pioneer Families Book 3	C2
El Rancho Drive	0		2007 map	E2
Elbridge Avenue	1987	The Furber family named this after Elbridge Gerry, Alan Furber Sr.'s grandfather, who came to Cloverdale in 1879 .	Alan Furber Sr. interview	E 2
Elm Street	1953		1953 map	D2
Else Way	0	not on 1972 map	2007 map	A-3
Evergreen Lane	0	part of Caldwell's addition?	1972 map	C-3
Fir Circle	0		2007 map	E1

First Street	1859	This is one of the earliest streets; in the 1897 atlas it was called First Avenue. □ Before 1948, the Richfield gas station on the NE corner was the only business and □ the SW corner was a vacant lot used for the Citrus Fair carnival. That June David Davini developed the north side into a series of shops and a clinic. Two years later □ Davini constructed another commercial bldg. on the south side, including Blairs' □ theater, shops, and a small medical building facing Main Street.	Wood survey; Davini biography; Marie Vadon Hil	C-2 to D-2
Foothill Boulevard	1975	not on the 1972 Centennial map	1975 City Plan Line	C-1 to E-2
Foster Court	0	not on 1972 map □ This may have been named after Arthur Foster, who ran a flour mill on Sulphur Creek □ before 1900; it later became a power plant, and then a residence.	2007 map; McCray resort folder	C-1
Fourth Street	1872	one of the earliest streets; David Brush bought the land on the east side of town and in the 1860s built the home at 122 Fourth	1872 map; Historic Cloverdale Downtown Walking Tou	C2
Franklin Avenue	1918	Originally this was at the north only from First to Second. □ In 1952 it was extended and joined the old Healdsburg road; on the 1972 □ Centennial map and the 2007 map, it is called Franklin Street	1918 Parsons; 1952 and 1972 maps	D2
Furber Lane	1989	This was named after the Furber family, developer of the subdivision and the □ Furber shopping center. □ Elbridge G. and Mary Furber family bought a 600+acre ranch here in 1879.	county records; Alan Furber Sr. interview in 2007	E2
G Wright Road	0		2007 map	C-3
Gamay Drive	1995	This street was mentioned in the 1995 SSU planning. Frank Seghesio developed □ this neighborhood on his former vineyard land. Pete Seghesio named this street.	1995 SSU planning document; Linda Taverner	D2

Garden Circle	0	This street has small sub-streets between its U-- Alana Way and another.	on 1998 map; observation	D2
Gentle Breeze Way	2000	This is in the Del Webb senior community called Clover Springs	2007 map	E-1
Gerdes Lane	0			B3
Geysers Road	0	On the 1872 map the extension of First St. was called Geyser Road, but the more important road is outside the city limits to the north.		A-3 to B-6
Gibson Lane	0		2007 map	D-4
Gillmore	0	not on 2007 map
Giorgi Road	0		2007 map	F-7
Grace Court	1972		1972 Centennial map	B-2
Grape Gables Way	0		2007 map	E2
Grenache Street	1995		1995 SSU planning	D-1 to D-2
Gruner Road	0		2007 map	I-4
H N Black Road	0		2007 map	G-7
Haehl Street	1947	In 1947 Dave Davini and Bill Schlueter, a retired railroad man, bought ten acres from Carl Haehl and developed twenty homes. To do so, Washington and Jefferson Streets were extended to the north and two new streets running east and west were opened. This subdivision was named the Haehl Addition.	Marie Vadon Hill, Cloverdale Memories, p. 14	C-1
Hardister Drive	1953		1953 map	C-2
Haselden Drive	1972	off First to Russian River; no longer exists due to freeway bypass; not on 2007 map	1972 Centennial map
Hatteras Way	0	not on 1972 Centennial map	2007 map	E2
Healdsburg Avenue	1885	Originally Healdsburg Rd. or St. , which extended West St. towards Healdsburg	1918 Parsons	D2
Heidi Lane	0		2007 map	C-2
Highway 128	0	This old road goes from Santa Rosa's Rincon Valley through Calistoga and here on the way to the coast. The Cloverdale section is from N. Cloverdale Blvd. northwest to Boonville. Hopland Grade is another name for this section.	maps	A 1---B 2
Hillside Drive	1972	This was the Carl Haehl winery until 1940, according to Marie Vadon Hill.	1972 Centennial map	C2
Hillview Drive	1953	mentioned in 1978 General Plan	1953 map	D-2

Homewood Court	0		2007 map	E 1
Honeysuckle Court	0		2007 map	F 1
Hot Springs Road	1972	This street needs research; it is probably very old. Because it was out of □ the early city limits, it was not listed on the early Cloverdale maps.	1972 Centennial map	E-2 to F-2
Icaria Court	2007	Icaria-Speranza was a Utopian community based on the writings of French philosopher Etienne Cabet. From 1881-1886 French immigrant families lived here. □ There is a plaque marking California Registered Historical Landmark #981.	2007 map	E 1
Imperial Drive	0	not on the 1972 Centennial map	2007 map	B-1
Imperiale Road	0		2007 map	D 4
Industrial Drive	1998		1998 Chamber of	D 2
Ivy Dell Lane	0	This former street name was changed to Caldwell Lane. William Caldwell bought 165 □ acres around the lane in 1861.	1972 Centennial map	D 2
Jefferson Street	1872	one of the earliest streets in town; 221 N. Jefferson was the home of Fred Yordi in □ 1880, on a fruit orchard including 200 orange trees.	May 1872 map	C 2
Jones Street	1897	This street does not appear on the 2007 map.	1897 atlas
Josephine Drive	1953		1953 map	C 1
Kay Court	0			C 2
Kelly Road	0	Named after the daughter in the developer's family, Elizabeth Kelly.	Linda Taverner	F 3--G 1
Kerry Lane	0			C-1
King Circle	0	This street is part of the King Valley senior apartment complex.	personal observation	C 2
King's Ridge Heights	0			C 2
Kinsey Road	0		2007 map	G 6
Koa Road	0		2007 map	F 6
Lake Street	1872	One of the earliest streets in town, this street was next to the railroad. A lake bordered the railroad in the 1860's. In 1878 the Cloverdale Wine Company was at the end of the street, near Mulberry St. In the 1960s the building housed Claude Gibson's Warehouse and Storage, before it was torn down for the freeway.	1872 map; Howell, 1859.	C 2--C 3

Laurel Court	0		2007 map	E 1
Laurel Street	1872	near Railroad depot, parallel to Mulberry Street; this street was eliminated in the □ freeway bypass	Board f Trustees map recorded at Recorder's office	C 3
Lavendar Court	2003	This street, the only true street in the neighborhood which does not have a wine □ variety name, was named by Sara O'Neal in honor of the beautiful lavender at □ Matanzas Creek Winery in Bennett Valley, near Santa Rosa.	Linda Taverner, resident	D 2
Levee Road	0	The section of Levee Road in D 3 is listed as a private road.	2007 map	C 3
Lile Lane	1887	George Emery Lile and Sarah Lile from Missouri bought land here about 1887. On the 1972 Centennial map the street name was spelled Lyle.	CHS pioneer family folders.	G1
Live Oak Lane	0	part of Caldwell's addition? See 1972 map, which lists it as L.O. Drive. The 2007 map lists it as a Lane.	2007 map	C-3
Los Colinas Drive	1978	On some earlier maps, this was listed as Las Colinas.	2007 map	D 2
Madrone Drive	0		2007 map	F 6
Main Street	1872	The oldest North Main street homes were built from the late 1860s to WW I.	1872 map; Downtown Walking Tour	C2--D3
Marguerite Lane	1988	Marguerite Hinds Furber was Alan Furber Sr.'s mother. The Furber family named this □ in their 1980's subdivision. □ M.H. Furber died when she was 53.	Alan Furber Sr. interview in 2007.	E 1
Mayor Way	1953	This is part of the Tarman Tract.		D2--D3
McCray Road	1877	William H. McCray owned 164 acres at the north of town.	1877 atlas	B2
Merlot Drive	1995	Frank Seghesio developed this neighborhood on land from his vineyard, and □ named the street.	Linda Taverner, resident	D 2
Milan Court	0		2007 map	B1
Mittelstadt Lane	0	This may be named after Bob and Pauline Mittelstadt and their sons, Leonard, Lloyd, and Francis, who operated Barnes Lumber in the mid-1960s.	Wagele and Gray, Cloverdale	B2
Monaco Circle	1995		SSU Planning Workshop	C1
Mulberry Street	1872	Many homes here were built in the late 1880s.	Recorder's map; Downtown Walking Tour	C2

Muscat Drive	1995	Frank Seghesio developed this neighborhood from his vineyard land and named this street. The homes were built by Sonoma Family Homes in 2000.	Linda Taverner, resident	D 2
North Street	1872			C2
Northstar Lane	2007	This is part of the Sunrise Hills development.		F2
Nye Road	0		2007 map	G7
Oak Knoll Terrace	0		2007 map	F6
Oak Lane	0		1972 Centennial map	C2
Oakbrook Lane	0			C2
Old Crocker Inn Road	0		2007 map	F6
Old Redwood Hwy.	0			B2
Orange	0
Orange Drive	0		1972 Centennial map	C2
Orion Court	0		2007 map	F2
Ottoboni Drive	0			E2
Palm Drive	0		2007 map	D2
Palomino Road	0			E6-F6
Pepperwood Drive	0		2007 map	E2
Pine Mountain Road	0			A4-6
Pinot Way	1998	Vintage Meadows subdivision built by Sonoma Family Homes; this was part of the Buck Boehm vineyard and at the edge of the Seghesio vineyard.	1998 Chamber of Commerce map
Plumaria/Plumeria Court	0			E1
Polaris Court	0	This is part of the Sunrise Hills development after 2000.	2007 map	F2
Poncetta Road	0		2007 map	H4
Port Circle	2004	Initially this was owned by Sonoma Family Homes, which sold it to Cristofferson Homes. Sara O'Neal gave the street a name, but Cristofferson changed the name.	Linda Taverner, resident	D 1
Porterfield Creek Drive	0	This was the location of the John W. Porterfield home in 1877. It became part of the Del Webb Clover Springs development.	atlas, p. 88	E1
Portofino Way	1996	This is in the Jefferson Springs subdivision built in the 1990s.	1998 map; Susan and Oscar Calderon	C1

		This was the historic depot for the Madam Preston spa near the Mendocino County line. □ □ □
Preston Depot	0	This is not on the 2007 map.
Primrose Lane	0		2007 map	F1
Railroad Avenue	1872	The train depot was located at the end of this street; as a result, a number of □ businesses were developed here. Remnants of The Dante Hotel and the Depot Hotel still stand.	Recorder's map and Downtown Walking Tour	D2
Ranch House Drive	0	This is part of the Cottages development built after 2000.	2007 map	E2
Red Mountain Drive	0	This is part of the Del Webb Clover Springs development built in the late 1990's.		E2
Riesling Street	1999	This was named by Sara O'Neal, Sonoma Family Homes, continuing the theme □ of wine names started by the Seghesio family in their neighboring subdivision. □ The land was a Seghesio vineyard up to 316 Riesling. From 320 Riesling on, the vineyard was owned by Buck Boehm, who sold the land prior to dying in 2007.	Linda Taverner, a resident	D 2
Riparian Lane	0		2007 map	G6
River Road	0	This is an old stagecoach road which underwent a name change.		B4-G6
River Side/Riverside Drive	0			A3
Roan Court	0			D2
Rockwell Road	0			B3
Rocky Dale Lane/ Rockydale Ln	0		1972 Centennial map	C2
Rolling Hills Court	0			E1
Rose Court	0			D2
Rosewood Drive	0		1972 Centennial map	E2
Sandholm Lane	0	On the 2007 map it is listed as Sandholm Road.	2007 map	E3, F3
Santana Drive	0			E3
School Street	1946			C1
Second Street	1859	This is one of the oldest streets in town; the firehouse was originally located □ on the corner of 2nd and Commercial.	J B Wood survey recorded at Recorder's office	C2

Shahan Drive	0	On the 2007 map it is spelled "Shanan."		C2
Shellenger Road (pvt)	0		2007 map	C5
Shelton Lane	0		2007 map	B3
Sherwood Circle, Court	0			E1-F-1
Short Street	2002	This street, which has no houses on it, was created to please St. Peter's Church across the creek, which wanted access to potential future homes on its back property. This street is off Riesling Street.	Linda Taverner, resident	D 2
Sierra Court	0			F2
Silva Street	0			C2
Simmons (?)	0	This is marked off Dutcher Creek Road, but has no designation as "road," "lane," etc.	2007 map	I-5
Sink Road	0	Daniel Sink came to Oat Valley in 1859. Marietta Winery was built before 1890 by William Daniel Sink. Sink married Marietta Cooley, granddaughter of Charles Henry Cooley, who also settled in Oat Valley as a pioneer.	Howell	B 1--A 1
Skyview Drive	0		2007 map	E1
Sonoma Drive	0		2007	E1
South Street	1872	In 1918 this street ran from Healdsburg Avenue to Caldwell and the railroad line.	1918 Parsons survey	D2
Springs Court	0		2007 map	E1
St. John Place	0		2007 map	D2
St. Michael Court	0		2007 map	D2
Stameroff Court	0			C2
Stonegate Circle	0		2007 map	D2
Sunrise Drive	0		2007 map	F2
Syrah Court	0		2007 map	D2
Tarman Drive	1948	In 1948 Central Plywood and Timber Co. developed homes known as Six Acres and later called the Tarman Tract in 1953.	Marie Vadon Hill, Cloverdale Memories, p. 15	D2
Theresa Drive	0		2007 map	G4
Third Street	1859	This is one of the oldest streets in town.	J B Wood survey	C2
Timber Ridge Court	0		2007 map	F2
Toscana Circle	0
Toscana Circle	0		2007 map	B1

Toyon Lane	0		2007 map	E6
Treadway Drive	2000	This was named by the Furber family for Alan Furber Sr.'s grandmother, a Treadway□ married to Elbridge Furber.□ Treadway Court is also listed on the 2007 map.	Alan Furber Sr. interview in 2007	E 2
Trimble Lane	0		2007 map	D4
Triplett Drive	1911	This may be associated with the Trimble Lumber Company.		C 2
U.S. Highway 101	0	The original Redwood Highway 101 went through town. In 1970 (?) the highway bypassed the town when it became a freeway. Remnants of the old one are□ called "Old Redwood Highway".	1972 map	A3-F3
Ukiah Road	1877	In the 1877 atlas three men are listed as residents on Ukiah Road, which was between Oat Valley and the Russian River at Preston. Three three were S. Larison,□ 160 acres; J. Mobray, 60 ac; and J. G. Heald, 251 ac.□ □ Not in the city limits, this street was not listed as such on the 1884 map.	Thompson. Hitoricall Atlas of Sonoma County, 1877.
University Street	1872	This was in the 1879 Kifer's Addition.	Kifer's Addition city records	C 2
Valley View Drive	0	The 2007 map lists this as Valley Drive.	2007 map	C 3
Venezia Way	1996	This is in the Jefferson Springs subdivision buillt in the 1990s; before that it was open□ land with a house, barn, and vineyard. Clover Creek is one boundary of Jefferson Springs.	1998 map; Oscar and Susan Calderon	C2
Venezia Way	0			C 2
Vine Drive	0			E 2
Vista View Drive	0		1968 General Plan	C 2
Wallace Lane	1989	The Furber family, subdivision developer, named this after Wallace Furber, Alan□ Furber's brother who died at age 2. He is buried in Railroad Cemetery.	Alan Furber Sr. interview in 2007	E2
Walnut Lane	0		2007 map	F6
Washington Street	1872	one of the earliest residential streets, with a number of early 1900 homes still□ inhabited in the 200 block of N. Washington St.	Historic Cloverdale Downtown Walking Tour	C2
Watertank Road	0		2007 map	D5

West Street	1859	This was one of the oldest streets in town, with many old businesses through the mid-twentieth century. It is now Cloverdale Boulevard. Therefore, West St. no longer appears on maps.	J B Wood survey recorded at Recorder's office	C2
Wiedersheim Road	0		2007 map	H6
William Circle	1999	The Furber family named this after Alan Furber Sr.'s father, William Furber.	2007 interview with Alan Furber Sr.	E 2
Willow Terrace	0		2007 map	F 6
Wilson Road	0			B 4
Wisteria Circle	1999	This is part of the Del Well Clover Springs development. □ □ From 1930-31 the Albertz airfield was located near here.	Pacific Coast Air Museum	E2
Woodhawk Lane	0	This was listed as a private lane in the 2007 map.	2007 map	D 5
Zinfandel Court	0		2007 map	D 2